ORDER FORM

PREFACE

This edition of the Catalogue of Publications and Products lists titled products released by the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) between 1 January 1991 and 31 December 1994, and those expected to be released during 1995. The Catalogue is also available on floppy disk.

The Catalogue is the primary reference to statistical information published from ABS collections. It provides reference information such as product title and reference year, and also provides a brief description of the content of each product. The release medium of the product — printed publication, floppy disk, CD-ROM or online service — is also indicated.

Most ABS data are available in computer readable form and access to over 100,000 time series is available through our PC Ausstats service (see page 3 for details).

The ABS also offers a number of consultancy services, ranging from answers to simple statistical inquiries to the provision of detailed statistical analysis and survey design. Details of these services are provided on page 3.

Information on how to use this Catalogue can be found in the Introduction.

The Introduction also provides details on the recently conducted review of ABS printed publications, a review which has resulted in a number of publications being discontinued. See page ix for more information.

Suggestions for improvements to the Catalogue, or queries on matters not itemised in detail such as the availability of data on special interest topics and unpublished statistics, should be directed to Information Inquiries in any ABS office. The addresses and phone numbers of ABS offices are shown on the back cover.

Australian Bureau of Statistics
Canberra
January 1995

INTRODUCTION

The Australian Bureau of Statistics is Australia's official statistical organisation. Its main function is to provide government and the community with an efficient, user-oriented national statistical service.

During 1995, the ABS will publish significantly fewer titles than in recent years. This follows a comprehensive review of our publications strategy which was conducted with the overall aim of providing information that remains cost-effective while still meeting the information needs of clients.

As a result of the publications review, the ABS is:

- discontinuing some publications that have only a limited readership;
- using alternative (new or existing) publications to present basic statistics from discontinuing publications; and
- introducing other data services to meet specific information needs of clients

Information from discontinued publications is still available from the ABS, either in related publications or alternative data services. Information on discontinuing publications can be obtained by contacting Information Inquiries in each State (see back cover).

THE CATALOGUE OF PUBLICATIONS AND PRODUCTS

The Catalogue of Publications and Products 1995 refers to titled products which the ABS has issued since 1 January 1991 or expects to release during 1995. In some cases, for example where products are part of a current series, information on earlier issues has been included.

The Catalogue is divided into four parts.

Part 1 — Services

This describes the various services available from the ABS.

Part 2 — National products

This part comprises a list of products that provide information referring to the whole of Australia. Many national products contain separate statistics for States and Territories as components of Australian totals, and can be used for comparing State figures. Products are arranged in sequence by ABS catalogue number. (See page xiii for an explanation of the ABS catalogue number)

Part 3 — State and Territory products

This is a list of products that provide information about a particular State or Territory. These products contain more detailed information that is provided in similar national publications, and in some cases they provide a finer geographic breakdown.

Part 4 — Indexes

This Part is divided into separate lists —

Directories, Catalogues and Guides

A comprehensive listing of directories, catalogues and guides issued by the ABS on particular topics can be found on page 306.

Information and Technical Papers

This index contains a listing of Information and Technical Papers produced by the ABS on the availability, collection and format of statistics. They are listed on pages 307 to 308.

Occasional Papers

Occasional Papers are prepared by individual ABS officers and provide accounts of ABS development or research work, and analyses of an experimental nature. These papers are listed on page 308.

Feature Articles

A list of Feature Articles which have been published in ABS publications since 1 January 1991 is included on pages 309 to 314. Feature Articles appear in some publications frequently and in others only occasionally. They examine statistical issues of particular interest or complexity in a more detailed manner than would normally be warranted.

Releases by Medium

A number of releases are available from the ABS on magnetic tape, cartridge, floppy disk, microfiche or CD-ROM. Indexes to each format can be found on pages 315 to 322.

1991 Census Products

For convenience, all 1991 Census of Population and Housing products are listed together in catalogue number order. The list appears on pages 323 to 328.

Titles

This index comprises a complete list of publication and product titles in alphabetic order. It appears on pages 329 to 357.

Subject Index

This index comprises an introductory page of information followed by alphabetically arranged subject headings. It provides detailed access to ABS published material relevant to various subjects of specific user interest.

For those interested in a particular subject area, e.g. international trade, education, etc., it may be convenient to identify the range of publications available under that subject heading by turning to the pages indicated in the table of contents at the front of this catalogue. On the other hand, users with a more specific interest, e.g. the production of milk and cheese, industrial disputes, etc., may find it convenient to check first the detailed subject index beginning on page 359.

HOW TO OBTAIN PUBLICATIONS

Publications Subscription Service

Clients who would like to receive information from the ABS on a regular basis, or who need to amend their existing subscription details, should contact the ABS Subscription Service on (freecall) 1800-020-608. Payment for subscriptions is generally required in advance.

Bookshop Sales

The ABS has bookshops in each capital city and these carry a wide range of ABS products. Addresses and phone numbers can be found on the back cover of this Catalogue.

Mail Order Services

The ABS Mail Order Bookshop can be contacted on (06) 252 5249. It accepts Bankcard, Mastercard, Visa or American Express phone orders. Alternatively, use may be made of the Order Form shown at the last page of this Catalogue.

PRICES

Prices quoted in this Catalogue are for individual copies and are subject to revision.

Annual subscription rates include postage and packaging charges.

COPYRIGHT

All ABS products are protected by copyright and are subject to the provisions of the Copyright Act 1968. Apart from any use as permitted under the Act, no part of any publication or other product may be reproduced without written permission. Inquiries related to copyright should be addressed to: The Director, Business Office, Australian Bureau of Statistics, PO Box 10, Belconnen ACT 2616, or telephone (06) 252 7265 or fax (06) 253 1093. In all cases the ABS must be acknowledged as the source when reproducing or quoting any part of an ABS publication or other product.

INFORMATION ON ABS RELEASES

To supplement this Catalogue, the ABS produces a monthly publication Publications Issued in [name of month], and a twice weekly Publications Advice.

The Publications Advice is produced on Tuesdays and Fridays and gives titles of all ABS publications expected to be released in the next few days. The last issue of the Publications Advice each month also contains a list of main economic indicator publications expected to be released during the following month. Information on expected releases is also available via Telecom's DISCOVERY and through the ABS on-line service, PC Ausstats.

ANNUAL REPORTS

The Australian Bureau of Statistics Annual Report (latest issue 1993-94, 154 pp) reports on the operations of the Australian Bureau of Statistics.

The Australian Statistics Advisory Council Annual Report (1993-94, 15 pp) outlines the functions and activities of the Council.

- 4438.0 Disability, Ageing and Carers, Australia: Accidents
- 4439.0 Disability, Ageing and Carers, Australia: Trends in Disability and Handicap

THE ABS CATALOGUE NUMBERING SYSTEM

The system consists of a five digit code.

The first two digits define the subject.

- The first digit defines the broad subject group.
- The second digit specifies the more precise subgroup.

The third and fourth digits are serial numbers which are permanently allocated to publications within categories formed by the first two digits. An allotted number will remain unchanged provided the contents of a publication remain essentially the same.

The fifth digit, after the full stop, represents the State or Territory covered by the statistics. The codes for each State and Territory are:

0	Australia
1	New South Wales
2	Victoria
3	Queensland
4	South Australia
5	Western Australia
6	Tasmania
7	Northern Territory
8	Australian Capital Territory
9	External Territories

Example: ABS Catalogue No.: 4206.6

1st digit:	4	= Social Statistics
2nd digit:	2	= Education
3rd & 4th digits:	06	= Serial numbers
5th digit:	6	= Tasmania

Title of Publication: = Education, Tasmania

1. SERVICES

1. SERVICES

CONSULTANCY SERVICES

The ABS provides two distinct types of consultancy service – Information Consultancy and Statistical Consultancy. Both provide a high level of personalised service to meet the complex information requirements of clients.

Consultancy services are available from all ABS offices.

Information Consultancy

The Information Consultancy Service supplies information on request from the nations' largest statistical database.

Information consultants have access to all statistical information within the ABS, including population census and demographic aggregates, industry, business and financial information, and other detailed information which may not be included in regular publications. Consultants can carry out research and present information tailored to the individual needs of the client. Phone numbers can be found on the back cover of this Catalogue.

Statistical Consultancy

The Statistical Consultancy Service provides expert assistance and advice in all areas of statistical methodology including, for example, survey and questionnaire design and regression analysis. Further details are provided on page 34.

ELECTRONIC INFORMATION SERVICES

PC Ausstats

PC Ausstats provides on-line access to a database containing over 100,000 time series, each series with around twenty years' worth of data. The scope of PC Ausstats ranges from main economic indicator statistics such as the Balance of Payments and Consumer Price Index, to more specialised series such as Tourist Accommodation and Motor Vehicle Registrations.

The PC Ausstats database is available 24 hours a day, and includes retrieval and manipulation software. PC Ausstats requires an IBM compatible PC and a modem. Further details are provided on page 33.

Discovery

Summary information from a range of key economic indicators and social statistics is available via Telecom's Discovery service.

Dial a Statistic — 0055 86400

The 0055 number provides access to recorded messages with the latest figures for the Consumer Price Index, National Accounts, Balance of Payments, Labour Force, Average Weekly Earnings and Estimated Resident Population. Information is updated at the time the latest figures are released.

(Service provided by Steadycom Pty Ltd, premium 70c/minute)

CD-ROM

The ABS has a number of CD-ROM based products that include data and manipulation software. See page 322 for more information on individual titles.

Floppy Disk

Most information from the ABS is available on floppy disk, either as a standard product option or as a customised service. There is also a number of products specifically developed as floppy disk products. See page 315 for a list of individual titles.

Internet

The ABS is presently developing a service to provide both free and commercial statistical information utilising Internet's World Wide Web (WWW) and Gopher Service. These services will be made available during 1995.

Cartridge/Magnetic Tape

Larger information requests can be supplied on a variety of cartridge or magnetic tape formats. See page 319 for a detailed list of titles.

Microfiche

The ABS provides statistical information on microfiche covering subjects such as Labour Force, Building and International Trade. In addition, historical statistical information (back to 1804) is available under our Colonial and Historical Microfiche series. See page 321 for a detailed list of titles.

LIBRARY SERVICES

ABS Library Network

There is a library in the ABS office of each capital city. These libraries hold current and historical ABS material, a wide range of statistical material from international agencies, and other material on subjects relevant to the Bureau's activities. Public access to these holdings is available on a self-help basis. The ABS Central Office Library (Canberra) also provides ABS publications and other material through inter-library loan.

Library Consultancy Service

Professional librarians are available to handle lengthy and complex queries and to carry out research in the field of current, historical and international statistics. A fee is charged for this service.

Sydney	(02) 268 4569	Adelaide	(08) 237 7588

Perth	(09) 360 5131	Canberra	(06) 252 6612

Library Extension Program

Through the Library Extension Program (LEP), ABS publications are made freely available to the public for reference at the National Library and State libraries, and at many public and tertiary libraries. A number of libraries also hold ABS data in electronic formats. Please contact your nearest library to check their holdings before visiting. Libraries requiring further information on the LEP, please contact the LEP Co-ordinator in your nearest ABS Office.

BUSINESS REGISTER SERVICES

The ABS can supply counts of business management units and their locations cross-classified by employment size, industry, geographic area or type of legal organisation (e.g. sole proprietor, state government, etc.). This information can be supplied as either a standard or customised table. Information about individual businesses cannot be disclosed.

The Business Register can also be used to provide a 'mailout' service, provided certain conditions are met. This service involves the dispatch of statistical questionnaires prepared by the client organisation to all businesses with specified characteristics.

For further information, phone Marketing and Information, Business Register Section on (03) 615 7351.

TRAINING SERVICES

The ABS conducts a variety of in-house training and development sessions for its own staff, mainly in relation to statistical techniques and methodology, national economic and social statistics, selected mainframe and micro-computing applications, management development, office skills, interpersonal skills and general personnel development. Attendance by persons from other organisations can be arranged in most cases. Training sessions conducted in the host organisation may also be possible.

For further details, phone the Director, Training and Development Centre on (06) 252 5365.

OTHER SERVICES

A small number of services have been given catalogue numbers and are listed in Parts 2 and 3 of the Catalogue. Those which are not specific to a subject area and which have not been referred to earlier in this part include:

- 1330.(State) Statpak (Selected ABS publications and products relevant to secondary school studies)
- 1331.(State) 4-SITE Consultancy Service (Designed primarily to provide small area data of interest to businesses)

2. NATIONAL PRODUCTS

Part 2 lists national printed publications and other products. Note that many of these contain statistics at the State and Territory level. However, all State and Territory specific publications and products are now shown in Part 3.

Discont'd 1111.0 Catalogue of Electronic Products

Irregular; first issue: 1991; final issue: 1993; 56 pp; free; ISSN: 1035-7815

The purpose of this catalogue is to give a more detailed description of what the ABS has to offer in the form of electronic products e.g., floppy disk, CD-ROM and electronic mail. Floppy disks, magnetic tapes and microfiche are grouped under subject headings ranging from Agriculture to Transport. Others, such as PC Ausstats etc., are listed separately with a short description of the product or service and ordering details.

NOTE: See also 1101.0.

1115.0 Colonial Microfiche Series — Colonial Statistics

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1804 to 1901; microfiche; $11,000.00

The Colonial Microfiche is a collection of over 250,000 pages of information stored on more than 3,000 microfiche. It represents most of the statistics published by the various Colonial bureaux and their precursors, and also includes the 1901 Census, the first and only Census to be carried out individually by each of the newly federated States.

NOTE: A catalogue of the microfiche, Catalogue of Australian Statistical Publications 1804 to 1901 (ISBN 0 642 14904 6), is also available at no extra charge. Individual State sets and titles can also be purchased.

1117.0 An Index of Information About Women — A Guide to Statistical Publications

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1991; 52 pp; $13.00; ISBN: 0 642 15874 6

A subject index and list of ABS publications containing statistical information on issues relevant to women. Used in conjunction with the Catalogue of Publications and Products (1101.0) this index will help women's policy, research and related organisations locate official ABS statistical information on women and women's issues.

1118.0 Directory of Housing Related Statistics

Triennial; first issue: 1988; latest issue: 1995, expected to be released in 1995; 200 pp; $41.00; ISSN: 1032-0865

Presents details of housing related statistics produced by both government and non-government sources. The directory is intended to acquaint users with the wide range of housing related data currently available. It is also useful as a reference guide which allows users interested in housing related data to locate quickly and easily the statistical information they need. Data entries are organised by broad subjects. Entries include the name of the organisation, a detailed description of the data collected, the purpose of the collection, the geographic area covered by the collection as well as the frequency and method of collection.

1122.0 Historical Microfiche Series — Statistical Publications since Federation

Irregular; first issue: 1901 to 1984; latest issue: 1994, expected to be released in 1995; microfiche; price on application; ISSN: 1038-6424

The Historical Microfiche Series contains publications released by the Central Office of the ABS since 1901 and publications issued by the State Offices since 1985. The microfiche are updated with discounted rates available to purchasers of the 1901-1984 set. The series includes a comprehensive index, guide cards and a timber storage cabinet.

NOTE: For further information, please contact the Historical Microfiche Manager on (06) 252 6612.

Continues: Catalogue of Historical Microfiche Series – Statistical Publications (1121.0)

Lists publications released by the Central Office of the ABS since 1901 and publications issued by the State Offices since 1985. All publications listed are available in microfiche as part of the Historical Microfiche Series. The Index to the Historical Microfiche Series is free to Historical Microfiche customers, but is also available for purchase.

New Issue 1124.0 Historical Publications on CD-ROM

Annual; first and latest issue: 1994, expected to be released in 1995; CD-ROM; price on application; ISSN: 1323-5966

Contains images of every printed publication produced by the ABS. All publications produced from each year are stored on Compact Disk Read Only Memory (CD-ROM) and bundled with a software package which is available for Windows. The software enables the retrieval, viewing and printing of any page(s) of the publications released within the products release period.

1130.0 Directory of Tourism Statistics

Irregular; first issue: 1991; latest issue: 1995, expected to be released in 1995; 140 pp; $38.00; ISSN: 1036-2606

Contains comprehensive information on public sector sources of tourism statistics together with brief articles showing how each source may be used in relation to tourism. The Tourism Statistics Framework is also briefly outlined.

1131.0 Directory of Superannuation Related Statistics

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1991; 100 pp; $25.00; ISBN: 0 642 16101 1

Brings together details of information available from some 35 data collections relating to superannuation and retirement, covering a range of private and government sources. It is similar in format and purpose to the Directory of Housing Related Statistics (1118.0).

1132.0 Directory of Transport Statistics

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1994; 120 pp; $30.00; ISBN: 0 642 18728 2

Presents a comprehensive list of major, publicly available holdings of transport related statistics, both within the ABS and amongst other agencies, together with brief articles relating to each source. It is intended to present users with a reference guide to locating quickly their statistical needs in relation to transport.

1133.0 National Statistical Systems — A Guided Tour

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1992; 243 pp; $20.00; ISBN: 0 642 17310 9

Discusses the nature, purpose, processes and content of national statistical systems. Beyond its relevance to the work of those involved directly in or with government statistical services, it is of potential interest to all who have a concern to be better informed about the nature and state of society. It sets out to deal with the topic of national statistical systems in a general and comparative way from a broad experience with national and international agencies.

1134.0 Directory of Industrial Relations Statistics

Irregular; first issue: November 1992; latest issue: 1995, expected to be released in 1995; 20 pp; $10.00; ISBN: 0 642 18390 2

Gives a brief overview of the types of ABS data that are available (from publications and special data services) relating to Industrial Relations issues and an understanding of the wide range of statistics available, and how they can be used.

1135.0 Directory of Labour Market and Social Survey Data

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1994; 153 pp; $10.00; ISBN: 0 642 18156 X

Provides descriptive information on recent labour market and social household surveys conducted by the ABS. It is useful to clients wishing to become familiar with the extensive amount of data on offer from the labour and social program. Information includes survey descriptions, lists of data items (both published and unpublished), resulting publications and an outline of how the program of survey topics is developed and collected.

1136.0 A Directory of Education and Training Statistics

Irregular; first and latest issue: March 1993; 80 pp; free; ISBN: 0 642 18099 7

A directory of ABS statistics related directly, or indirectly, to education and training in Australia. It provides descriptive information on various data sources, data items available, frequency of collections, publications produced, and any reliability/confidentiality provisions.

NOTE: For further information on availability of related data, or to obtain your complimentary copy of this directory, phone (06) 252 7798.

NOTE: In addition, the following directory relating to census statistics is listed on page 49 of this Catalogue.

2910.0 1991 Census — Directory of Census Statistics

12: CLASSIFICATIONS AND WORK MANUALS

Discont'd 1201.0 Australian Standard Industrial Classification (ASIC), Volume 1 — The Classification*Irregular; first issue: 1969; final issue: 1983; 509 pp; $25.00Continued by: 1292.0*

The ASIC is designed primarily as a system for classifying establishments, e.g. individual mines, factories or shops by industry. It may also be used for classifying other statistical units such as enterprises. Volume 1 of the ASIC presents the detailed classification and defines each industry class identified in it. The broader industry categories in the ASIC, i.e. the groups, subdivisions and divisions, are defined in terms of the industry classes of which they are composed. This volume also describes in some detail the nature, purpose and principles of the classification, the concepts of the statistical units being classified and the methods and criteria for classifying them.

This volume of the ASIC contains a comprehensive alphabetic list of economic activities, showing for each activity the ASIC class in Volume 1 to which it is primary.

1210.0 Australian Transport Freight Commodity Classification (ATFCC) and Australian Pack Classification (APC)Irregular; first issue: 1981-82; latest issue: 1993; 83 pp; $25.50; ISBN: 0 642 17296 XPreviously: Australian Transport Freight Commodity Classification (ATFCC) and Interim Australian Pack Classification (APC)

The ATFCC and the APC are two transport related classifications designed to enable goods transported to, from and within Australia by sea, air, rail, road or pipeline to be classified in a consistent and standardised manner. The ATFCC classifies goods carried by type of commodity while the APC classifies cargo by its pack characteristics, e.g. 'in bulk' or 'containerised'.

1216.0 Australian Standard Geographical Classification (ASGC)Irregular; first issue: June 1985; latest issue: July 1995, expected to be released in 1995; loose-leaf; $75.00; ISBN: 0 642 16055 4

The ASGC is the main Australia-wide area classification and coding scheme for use in classifying statistics by geographical areas. It is kept up-to-date by the issue of replacement pages annually. The 1991 ASGC provides details of the geographical areas used for the dissemination of data from the 1991 Census of Population and Housing and is used as the base copy for insertion of replacement pages to form later editions.

NOTE: ASGC Structures are available on floppy disk, in code and label format, for each edition. Also available are standard A3 ASGC maps. For further information, please telephone (06) 252 7581.

1218.0 Standard Institutional Sector Classification of Australia (SISCA)Irregular; first and latest issue: 1987; 36 pp; $2.80

SISCA is a system for classifying institutional units, i.e. enterprises and households, into broad economic sectors for national accounts and related statistics. It also defines the Australian public sector for statistical purposes.

New Issue 1219.0 Australian Health ClassificationsIrregular; first and latest issue: 1995, expected to be released in 1995; 40 pp; $15.00; ISBN: 0 642 18124 1*

Provides details of all the health-related classifications used by the ABS in the presentation of health statistics. It is also a guide to other agencies compiling statistics on health-related topics on the classifications to be used.

1221.0 Information Paper: ASCO — Australian Standard Classification of Occupations*Irregular; first issue: 1986; latest issue: January 1994; 8 pp; $5.00; ISBN: 0 642 18399 6*

Gives a brief summary of the development of ASCO, describes the purpose and contents of the various ASCO publications and products, and discusses the current review of the classification.

1222.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) Statistical Classification (First Edition)Irregular; first and latest issue: 1986; 372 pp; $25.00; ISBN: 0 642 17026 6

Comprises an explanation of the conceptual basis of the classification, structure, definitions of the major, minor, and unit groups and a Keyword Index of Structure Titles. The latter is intended as an index to the classification and is not designed for coding purposes (see 1225.0 and 1227.0). The primary purpose of the Statistical Classification is to aid the interpretation of ABS occupation statistics. It is also a necessary reference document for unit group level coding as defined in the ASCO Manual Coding System: Unit Group Level (1225.0).

1223.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Occupation Definitions (First Edition)Irregular; first and latest issue: 1990; 501 pp; $25.00; ISBN: 0 642 14861 9

Defines and describes the 1,079 categories at the most detailed level of ASCO, the occupation level (6-digit codes). A companion volume to the ASCO Statistical Classification (1222.0), it is intended for those who require detailed occupational information. It is a necessary reference document for occupation level coding as defined in the ASCO Manual Coding System: Occupation Level (1227.0).

1224.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Expert Coding System: Unit Group Level, Version 5.0 on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1990; floppy disk; $500.00

ASCO Expert: Unit Group Level is a computer-assisted coding system which allows the coding of occupation responses to the 4-digit level of the Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO). The system facilitates the fast, consistent and accurate coding of occupation responses. ASCO Expert: Unit Group Level is a floppy disk-based system for IBM or compatible microcomputers and is available on an annual lease basis for $500 per copy. Discounts apply for multiple copies.

NOTE: For further information, please telephone the ASCO Hotline on (06) 252 5757.

1225.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Manual Coding System: Unit Group Level

Irregular; first issue: 1987; latest issue: 1992; 419 pp; $30.00; ISBN: 0 642 17214 5

Specifies the procedures and provides the indexes necessary for the accurate coding of occupational information to the 282 categories at the unit group level of ASCO. Its main purpose is to enable users to produce results comparable with those of the ABS. The package includes an overview of the coding system, a Training Guide, a Reference Guide, alphabetical and numerical order indexes, and a guide for resolving queries (those cases which cannot be coded using index matching procedures).

1226.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Expert Coding System: Occupation Level, Version 5.0 on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1991; floppy disk; $600.00

ASCO Expert: Occupation Level is a computer-assisted coding system which allows the coding of occupation responses to the 6-digit level of the Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO). The system facilitates the fast, consistent and accurate coding of occupation responses. ASCO Expert: Occupation Level is a floppy disk-based system for IBM or compatible microcomputers and is available on an annual lease basis for $600 per copy. Discounts apply for multiple copies.

NOTE: For further information, please telephone the ASCO Hotline on (06) 252 5757.

1227.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Manual Coding System: Occupation Level

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1993; 500 pp; $30.60; ISBN: 0 642 17207 2

Specifies the procedures and provides the indexes necessary to code occupation data to the 1,079 categories at the most detailed level of ASCO, the occupation level. Intended for users who wish to assign 6-digit ASCO codes on the basis of relatively detailed information available in personnel management information systems, job vacancy specifications, or responses collected from special purpose statistical collections.

1228.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Keyword Index of Unit Group Tasks*Irregular; first and latest issue: 1990; 176 pp; $20.00; ISBN: 0 642 15472 4*

Contains an index of all major task words used in the unit group definitions in the ASCO Statistical Classification (1222.0). The keywords are arranged alphabetically and each is followed by a list of all the codes for the unit groups in which that task word occurs. This is followed by the lead statement for that unit group or the relevant extract from the list of primary tasks. Assists users who have detailed information about tasks performed to locate all relevant ASCO unit groups.

1229.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Keyword Index to Occupation Definitions*Irregular; first and latest issue: 1992; 494 pp; $25.00; ISBN: 0 642 16847 4*

Contains an index of selected words used in the ASCO Occupation Definitions (1223.0). The keywords are arranged alphabetically and each is followed by a list containing the code and principal title of every occupation in which the keyword is used. It is useful in finding the correct ASCO definition for an occupation and in determining the appropriate ASCO code when no title, or only an inadequate title, is available.

Discont'd1230.0 Australian Standard Industrial Classification (ASIC) — Titles and Codes on Floppy DiskIrregular; first and final issue: 1983; floppy disk; $110.00

Contains the same information provided in 1201.0 (1983 edition) but on floppy disk.

1231.0 Standards for Statistical Units in Australian Integrated Economic Statistics (SSU)Irregular; first and latest issue: 1985; 134 pp; $3.60

This document specifies the concepts, standard definitions and working rules for identifying and recording, on the ABS Integrated Register, establishments, enterprises and other classes of statistical units from or about which information is collected by the ABS in its integrated economic censuses and surveys.

1233.0 Australian Harmonized Export Commodity Classification (AHECC)Irregular; first issue: 1988; latest issue: 1 January 1995; loose-leaf; $75.00; ISBN: 0 644 06598 2

Used in the preparation of export documentation and in the compilation of Australian export statistics. The classification is arranged in six sections: introduction and explanatory notes; codes, abbreviations and summary of the AHECC; detailed export commodity classification; key of changes between export statistical items; alphabetical index to the AHECC. Replacement pages will be issued as required.

NOTE: Free to authorised exporters.

1234.0 Australian National Classification of Offences (ANCO)

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1985; 127 pp; $3.80; ISBN: 0 642 18144 6

ANCO contains a classified list of offences with relevant explanatory notes. It has been developed for use in the preparation of statistics by crime and justice agencies in all States and Territories.

Discont'd 1236.0 Australian Standard Industrial Classification (ASIC), Volume 1 — The Classification on Magnetic Tape

Irregular; first issue: 1983; final issue: 1990; magnetic tape; price on application

Contains the same information provided in 1201.0 (1983 edition) but on magnetic tape.

Discont'd 1237.0 Australian Standard Industrial Classification (ASIC), Volume 1 — The Classification on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first issue: 1983; final issue: 1990; floppy disk; $25.00

Contains the same information provided in 1201.0 (1983 edition) but on floppy disk.

Discont'd 1238.0 Australian Standard Industrial Classification (ASIC), Volume 2 — Alphabetical Index of Primary Activities on Magnetic Tape

Irregular; first issue: 1983; final issue: 1988; magnetic tape; $40.00

Contains the same information provided in 1202.0 (1983 edition) but on magnetic tape.

Discont'd 1239.0 Australian Standard Industrial Classification (ASIC), Volume 2 — Alphabetical Index of Primary Activities on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first issue: 1983; final issue: 1988; floppy disk; $40.00

Contains the same information provided in 1202.0 (1983 edition) but on floppy disk.

1240.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Structural Lists on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1989; floppy disk; $60.00

Comprises a machine-readable copy (IBM PC format floppy disk) of the structure of ASCO as published in the ASCO Statistical Classification (1222.0) together with a complete listing of all titles in the classification, including alternative and specialisation titles. Also included is an explanation of the valid 4-digit output codes, together with a complete listing of these output codes.

1241.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) —
Keyword Index of Structure Titles on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1989; floppy disk; $80.00

Comprises a machine-readable copy (IBM PC format floppy disk) of the keyword index of structure titles as published in 1222.0. This index contains, in alphabetical order, all major words occurring in ASCO principal, alternative, and specialisation titles. It is not designed for coding occupational data. Users wishing to code occupations are advised to telephone the ASCO Hotline on (06) 252 5757.

1242.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) —
Structure and Group Definitions on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1989; floppy disk; $100.00

Comprises a machine-readable copy (IBM PC format floppy disk) of the structure of ASCO and the definitions of the major, minor and unit groups as published in the ASCO Statistical Classification (1222.0).

1243.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) —
Occupation Definitions on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1989; floppy disk; $160.00

Comprises a machine-readable copy (IBM PC format floppy disk) of the definitions of the 1,079 categories at the most detailed level of ASCO, the occupation level, as published in ASCO Occupational Definitions (1223.0).

1245.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Coding
Index: Unit Group Level on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1989; floppy disk; $60.00

Comprises a machine-readable copy (IBM PC format floppy disk) of the ASCO Coding Index: Unit Group Level. This index is used to code responses to the 4-digit level of ASCO, and is based on actual responses obtained in censuses and surveys. The index is listed (in alphabetical order) of occupational title.

1247.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Coding
Index: Occupation Level on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1989; floppy disk; $60.00

Comprises a machine-readable copy (IBM PC format floppy disk) of the ASCO Coding Index: Occupation Level. This index is used to code responses to the 6-digit level of ASCO, and is based on actual responses obtained in censuses and surveys. The index is listed (in alphabetical order) of occupation title.

New Issue 1250.0 Australian Standard Classification of Visitor Accommodation*Irregular; first and latest issue: 1995; 20 pp; $17.00; ISBN: 0 642 20744 5*

The ASCOVA is a comprehensive classification, with appropriate descriptions, of types of accommodation used overnight by visitors. It covers commercial and non-commercial establishments and facilities which may or may not be designed or intended to accommodate visitors. It has been developed for use primarily in the preparation of tourism statistics which include accommodation type as a classificatory variable.

1252.0 National Localities Index — Localities Segment, Australia*Irregular; first issue: January 1991; latest issue: July 1994; floppy disk; price on application*

A general purpose index designed to assign postcodes and Statistical Local Area (SLA) codes to more than 28,000 Australian localities. It can also assign the larger regional codes of Statistical Subdivision, Statistical Division and State/Territory as defined in the Australian Standard Geographical Classification (ASGC) (1216.0). The Localities Index is updated with each new edition of the ASGC. A Street Sub-Index and computer assisted coding software is also available.

NOTE: For more information and details on pricing please contact Area Classification on (06) 252 5620.

1253.0 Postcode to Statistical Local Area Concordance, Australia*Irregular; first and latest issue: 1991; floppy disk; $420.00*

Enables the conversion of all Australian postcodes to Statistical Local Areas (SLAs), as defined in the Australian Standard Geographical Classification (ASGC) (1216.0). The conversion is expressed as a percentage of each postcode's population as recorded in the SLA(s) that occur within the postcode's area. The concordance is effective at the time of the 1991 Census of Population and Housing. The reverse concordance, i.e. SLA to Postcode 1991, and other geographic concordances, are also available.

NOTE: For more information please contact Area Classification on (06) 252 5620.

1254.0 Australian and New Zealand Standard Commodity Classification (ANZSCC)Irregular; first issue: 1990; latest issue: 1995, expected to be released in 1995; 330 pp; $48.00; ISBN: 0 642 20758 5

Previously: Australian Standard Commodity Classification (ASCC) (Revised) – Transportable Goods

The ANZSCC represents existing commodity items and provides an outline for future collections. It has been developed in conjunction with Statistics New Zealand. It covers all goods and services and uses the Central Product Classification as its framework. Links are specified to the Australian and New Zealand Standard Industrial Classification and, where relevant, to the Harmonised System and the Standard International Trade Classification.

NOTE: A floppy disk version of the ANZSCC is also available see 1255.0.

1255.0 Australian and New Zealand Standard Commodity Classification (ANZSCC) on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first issue: 1990; latest issue: 1995, expected to be released in 1995; floppy disk; $48.00

Previously: Australian Standard Commodity Classification (ASCC) (Revised) – Transportable Goods on Floppy Disk

For contents see 1254.0.

1256.0 Australian Transport Freight Commodity Classification (ATFCC) on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first issue: 1989-90; latest issue: 1993; floppy disk; $25.50

Contains the same information provided in 1210.0 but on floppy disk.

1262.0 ABS Classification of Qualifications (ABSCQ)

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1993; 230 pp; $30.60; ISBN: 0 642 18640 3

The ABSCQ is designed to classify post-school educational qualifications, by level of attainment and field study. It was developed specifically to classify data on qualifications collected in the 1991 Census of Population and Housing and is being introduced into other ABS collections. This publication comprises an explanation of the conceptual basis of the classification, definitions of the level of attainment categories and of the broad, narrow and detailed field of study categories, and a set of conversion tables which define the relationship between ABSCQ and other relevant classifications. Its primary purpose is to aid the interpretation of ABS statistics on qualifications. Users wishing to code their own qualifications data to the classification should refer to ABS Classification of Qualifications: Manual Coding System (1265.0), which includes the coding indexes used to code qualifications data in the Census.

Also available is the ABSCQ Classification Definitions and Structural Lists (1262.0.15.001) on floppy disk. This disk contains the structure of the ABSCQ and the classification definitions for level of attainment, and broad, narrow and detailed field of study categories. It does not contain the conceptual basis or appendices that are included in 1262.0.

Links between ABSCQ and Other Educational Classifications (1262.0.15.002) is also available on floppy disk. This disk contains the three concordances:

- ABSCQ to the International Standard Classification of Education (ISCED);
- ABSCQ to the Field of Study Classification of Tertiary Education Courses (FOSCTEC); and
- ABSCQ to the 1986 Census Classification of Qualifications.

1263.0 Information Paper: ABS Classification of Qualifications (ABSCQ)

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1992; 4 pp; free; ISBN: 0 642 17245 5

Provides an overview of the ABSCQ. It outlines the conceptual basis of the classification, the reason for its development and its intended use. It also contains information on the Classification's relationship to other relevant classifications.

1265.0 ABS Classification of Qualifications (ABSCQ): Manual Coding System

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1993; 550 pp; $30.60; ISBN: 0 642 18611 1

The ABSCQ is designed to classify post-school educational qualifications by level of attainment and field of study. It was developed specifically to classify data on qualifications collected in the 1991 Census of Population and Housing and is being introduced into other ABS collections. This publication was developed to enable a 4-digit code (level of attainment and field of study) to be assigned to information about a particular qualification to produce statistics compatible with those produced by the ABS. It comprises a training guide, coding indexes and a guide to resolving queries. Users should refer to the ABS Classification of Qualifications (ABSCQ) (1262.0) when interpreting statistics coded to this classification.

Also available on floppy disk is the ABSCQ Coding Index and Valid Output Codes (1265.0.15.001). The disk contains the coding index as presented in 1265.0, together with a list of valid output codes for level of attainment and field of study. It also includes a matrix of valid level of attainment and field of study combinations. These valid output codes are not published elsewhere.

1269.0 Australian Standard Classification of Countries for Social Statistics (ASCCSS)

Irregular; first issue: 1990; latest issue: 1995, expected to be released in 1995; 160 pp; $50.00; ISBN: 0 642 20727 5

Comprises an explanation of the conceptual basis of the classification, the structure of the classification, alphabetical and numerical order coding indexes and a link between ISO codes and the classification codes. The classification is intended for use whenever social, demographic and labour statistics are classified by country.

1270.0 Australian Standard Classification of Countries for Social Statistics (ASCCSS) — Version 1.03 on Floppy Disk

Irregular; floppy disk; $60.00

Comprises a machine-readable copy (IBM PC format floppy disk) of the Australian Standard Classification of Countries for Social Statistics as published in 1269.0.

Discont'd

1276.0 Australian Standard Industrial Classification (ASIC) — Expert Coding System, Version 2.9 on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first issue: 1983; final issue: 1990; floppy disk; $125.00

A lexicon based computer-assisted method for industry coding. This system incorporates the classification detail defined in Australian Standard Industrial Classification, Volume 1 (1201.0).

1281.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO), First Edition — Working Draft Cross Index: Alphabetical Occupation Title Order on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1990; floppy disk; $70.00

A conversion list in machine-readable form (IBM PC format floppy disk) to assist users in finding equivalent codes for ASCO First Edition, Structure A and Structure B. Sorted alphabetically by occupation title, each record lists the three code equivalents (where they exist).

1285.0 Standards for Statistics on Age and Sex

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1993; 12 pp; free; ISBN: 0 642 18163 2

Specifies ABS standards for the collection, processing, storage and dissemination of statistics on age and sex. Topics covered include the ABS recommended definitions of concepts, classification criteria, code structures, questionnaire modules and output categories. Issues related to these standards are also discussed. This publication is intended to aid the interpretation of ABS data on age and sex and to provide advice to agencies wishing to produce data which is comparable with that of the ABS.

NOTE: This publication was previously listed as Standards for the Collection, Processing and Dissemination of Gender Statistics (1261.0) and Standards for the Collection, Processing and Dissemination of Age Statistics (1260.0).

New Issue 1286.0 Standards for Statistics on the Family

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1995, expected to be released in 1995; 140 pp; $30.00; ISBN: 0 642 18158 6

Specifies ABS standards for the collection, processing, storage and dissemination of statistics on family type, relationship in household, household type and marital status. Topics covered include the ABS recommended definitions of concepts, classification criteria, code structures questionnaire modules and output categories. Issues related to these standards are also discussed.

New Issue 1287.0 Standards for Statistics on Income

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1995, expected to be released in 1995; 50 pp; $28.50; ISBN: 0 642 18166 7

Specifies ABS standards for the collection, processing, storage and dissemination of statistics on income. Topics covered include the ABS recommended definitions of concepts, classification criteria, code structures, questionnaire modules and output categories. Issues related to these standards are also discussed.

New Issue 1288.0 Standards for Statistics on Core Labour Force Variables

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1995, expected to be released in 1995; 60 pp; $30.00; ISBN: 0 642 18174 8

Specifies ABS standards for the collection, processing, storage and dissemination of statistics on labour force variables. Topics covered include the ABS recommended definitions of concepts, classification criteria, code structures, questionnaire modules and output categories. Issues related to these standards are also discussed.

New Issue 1290.0 Australian and New Zealand Standard Industrial Classification (ANZSIC) Coder

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1995, expected to be released in 1995; floppy disk; $125.00

The ANZSIC Coder is a user friendly, micro-computer based look-up tool for the Australian and New Zealand Standard Industrial Classification (ANZSIC) that operates in the WINDOWS environment. The software enables the user to enter all or part of a word or a numeric code which the Coder will match to entries within its data file. It displays a list of all entries, complete with their relevant ANZSIC codes.

1291.0 A Guide to Major ABS Classifications

Irregular; first issue: 1990; latest issue: 1995, expected to be released in 1995; 30 pp; $10.00; ISBN: 0 642 17257 9

The guide is intended to provide an overview of the major ABS classifications and assist users wishing to gain a broad understanding of these classifications. This will aid the interpretation and analysis of statistics provided by the ABS. The classifications referred to in the guide relate to industry, geographical areas of Australia, production and trade commodities, countries, occupations, government finance and offences. In addition to providing a ready description of the nature of these key classifications, the guide gives details of ABS products that are available to be used in association with the classifications.

1292.0 Australian and New Zealand Standard Industrial Classification (ANZSIC)

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1993; 445 pp; $75.00; ISBN: 0 642 17241 2

Continues: 1201.0, 1236.0 and 1237.0

The ANZSIC is to be implemented for all ABS industry classified statistics and is a fundamentally important reference for organisations wishing to interpret these statistics or to compile their own statistics on a comparable basis. The ANZSIC is also to be implemented by the New Zealand Department of Statistics with whom it was jointly developed. This publication presents the detailed classification and defines each industry class identified in it. It also includes concordances with the ASIC, the New Zealand Standard Industrial Classification (NZSIC) and the International Standard Industrial Classification of Economic Activities (ISIC).

NOTE: The following ANZSIC products are available on floppy disk:

1292.0.15.001 Complete Classification ($75.00)

1292.0.15.002 Titles and Codes ($50.00)

1292.0.15.003 Index of Primary activities ($50.00)

1292.0.15.004 ASIC-ANZSIC Concordance ($50.00)

1292.0.15.005 ISIC-ANZSIC Concordance ($50.00)

1292.0.15.006 NZSIC-ANZSIC Concordance ($50.00)

1293.0 Australian and New Zealand Standard Industrial Classification (ANZSIC) — Alphabetic Coding Index

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1994; 195 pp; $50.00; ISBN: 0 642 17249 8

Continues: 1202.0, 1238.0 and 1239.0

Contains a comprehensive alphabetic list of economic activities, showing for each activity the ANZSIC class to which it is primary.

1296.0 Information Paper: Dwelling Structure Classification (DSC)

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1992; 2 pp; free; ISBN: 0 642 17270 6

Provides details of the ABS Dwelling Structure Classification. The classification has been introduced with the 1990 Survey of Income and Housing Costs and Amenities and the 1991 Census of Population and Housing. The paper gives definitions for each of the classes in the classification and all relevant concepts. It also provides details of the Functional Classification of Buildings. Both classifications are comparable and details of the concordance are provided in the paper.

1297.0 Australian Standard Research Classification (ASRC)

1340.0 NIF-10S Model Data Base Manual

Quarterly; first issue: December 1989; 200 pp; $40.00; ISSN: 1031-2641

Continues: 1313.0

The NIF-10S Model Data Base provides over 300 time series forming the data base for the National Income Forecasting (NIF) Model of the Australian economy. A document, The NIF-10 Model of the Australian Economy, published by the Treasury, provides a comprehensive description of version 10 of the NIF model and gives details of the model variables. The Treasury has published a document Proceedings of the Conference on the NIF-10 Model held at the Australian National University in October 1982, in which NIF-10S (an extended version of NIF-10 more suitable for simulation studies) was presented and analysed. The data base is provided on magnetic tape (1341.0), floppy disk (1342.0) and microfiche (1343.0). The manual (1340.0) contains details of the structure and format for each form of dissemination, as well as a description of each time series. The manual is in loose-leaf form and amendment pages are issued as required.

1347.0 Information Paper: An Experimental Composite Leading Indicator of the Australian Economic Activity

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1993; 25 pp; $10.00; ISBN: 0 642 18179 9

A composite leading indicator (CLI) of global economic activity has been developed in the context of the ABS's efforts to explore means of providing early signals of movements in economic activity. CLIs help in detecting the turning points in economic activity and are designed to complement other form of economic analysis and forecasting. This information paper describes the nature of the composite leading indicator, its construction and explains how to interpret the CLI in forecasting mode. Several appendices to the paper give details on the technical aspects of the CLI including the determination of the business cycle, the methodology used to study the time relationship between series, the aggregation technique, the weighting system and the results of the CLI behaviour on the dynamic simulation of past turning points.

1348.0 Information Paper: A Guide to Interpreting Time Series - Monitoring "Trends", an Overview*Irregular; first and latest issue: 1993; 8 pp; free; ISBN: 0 642 18736 3*

This information paper briefly explains why, in ABS publications, the main features and commentaries sections concerning most time series are increasingly emphasising the trend series rather than the seasonally adjusted or original data. It indicates that these trend estimates are a better guide to the substantive movements in series, and are generally more suitable for most business planning decisions and policy advice. For a more detailed discussion of these issues refer to the companion information paper A Guide to Interpreting Time Series - Monitoring "Trends" (1349.0).

New Issue 1349.0 A Guide to Interpreting Time Series — Monitoring "Trends"Irregular; first and latest issue: 1995, expected to be released in 1995; 40 pp; $30.00; ISBN: 0 642 18744 4

This information paper explains why, in ABS publications, the main features and commentaries sections concerning most time series are increasingly emphasising the trend series rather than the seasonally adjusted or original data. It also explains how these trend estimates are obtained as well as how they may be used more effectively for informed decision making. It indicates that these trend estimates are the better guide to the substantive movements in series, and are generally more suitable for most business planning decisions and policy advice. This information paper supersedes the information paper A Guide to Smoothing Time Series - Estimates of Trend, 1987, (1316.0).

1350.0 Australian Economic Indicators*Monthly; first issue: February 1991; 160 pp; $26.00; ISSN: 1035-865X*

A monthly compendium of economic statistics, presenting a statistical summary of recent developments in the Australian economy. Includes comprehensive tables, charts, commentaries, feature articles and technical notes. It is primarily a reference document, providing a broad basis for analysis and research on the Australian economy and includes statistics which can be applied to both macroeconomic and sectoral analyses. The publication begins with a monthly review, followed by statistics under the following headings: National Accounts, International Accounts, Public Sector Accounts, Consumption and Investment, Production, Prices, Labour Force and Demography, Incomes and Labour Costs, Financial Markets, State Comparisons and International Comparisons. The March through to January issues generally present the statistics as time series for the last nine years of annual data, and for the last nine quarters or fifteen months of data. The February issue contains longer time series.

New Issue 1351.0 Working Papers in Econometrics and Applied Statistics*Irregular; first issue: September 1993; 60 pp; $11.00; ISSN: 1320-5099*

The series contain working papers drawn from ABS research in the fields of econometrics, time series and statistics. The series is intended to make the results of current research within the ABS available to other interested parties. The aim is to present accounts of ABS developments, research work and analysis of an experimental nature in order to encourage discussion and comment. Each working paper in the series is of a technical nature and contains the results of one research topic, the series of papers containing a diverse range of ABS work.

1353.0 Integrated Regional Data Base (IRDB), Australia: Statistical Local Areas*Irregular; CD-ROM; price on application*

Provides a wide range of social, economic and environmental data on a regional basis and time series for these dating back to 1986 or earlier for some items. Contains statistical data from social and economic collections of the ABS and from other Commonwealth agencies, covering for example, the environment, health and disability, employment and unemployment, rural economies and electoral matters. Data are available from the all-Australia level down to Statistical Local Area. The IRDB produces interactive tables, graphs, and reports from screen-based selections of areas, data items and time periods. It has powerful exporting and importing functions and extensive metadata. The IRDB has unique functions to handle geographic boundary changes, allowing a wide range of data items to be compared on a consistent regional basis through time.

The optional mapping module allows users to further examine the data through a powerful, integrated Geographic Information System (GIS). Data which have been retrieved/tailed through the IRDB, including multi-date selections, can be thematically mapped or further analysed from a geographic perspective.

2719.0 1991 Census — CTAB91*$8,500.00; CD-ROM*

CTAB91 is a CD-ROM product that allows access, display, printing, aggregating and exporting of 1991 Census data. This product has been designed to replace microfiche. The 1991 Census data in this package includes National Matrixes (2711.0–2711.8), State Matrixes (2712.1–2712.4, 2712.6), Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Matrixes (2715.0), and the State, Capital City and Statistical Region Comparison Series (2731.0, 2733.0 & 2732.0).

2721.0 1991 Census — CDATA91*Price on application; CD-ROM*

CDATA91 is a CD-ROM product that allows desktop analysis of 1991 Census data for small areas e.g. Collection District, SLA, etc. CDATA91 contains Community Profile data: Basic, Expanded, Working Population, Usual Residents, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander, and the Time Series (Time Series compares common classifications from the 1981, 1986 and 1991 Censuses). There is also available a profile on External Territories (includes Christmas Island and Cocos (Keeling) Islands) based on the Basic Community Profile. All profiles include digitised statistical boundaries and basic digitised topographic data.

There is a choice of mapping software: CDATA91 with Supermap provides straightforward, fast and easy access to census data. CDATA91 with MapInfo satisfies the need for more complex analysis of statistical data.

Both software options have import and export options to other PC packages. An optional detailed topographic base (including streets, minor waterways, some post offices, police stations, shopping malls etc.) is available for both products.

CDATA91 is available at State/Territory and total Australia level for IBM-PC and Apple Mac.

NOTE: There are two add on modules that can be purchased with CDATA91 with Supermap. For more information see:

2726.0 Population Censuses 1981 and 1986; and

3226.0 Estimated Resident Population 1986 to 1991.

2722.0 1991 Census — Community Profiles, Australia*Price on application*

Community Profiles comprise census data for all geographic areas, from Collection Districts (CDs) to total Australia. Each Community Profile is a set of tables containing key census characteristics of persons, families and dwellings, covering most topics on the census form.

Explanatory notes and footnotes are included with each Community Profile.

The Basic Community Profile provides 58 tables for all census areas for CD to total Australia, including postcode. The Basic Community Profile replaces the "7 page" small format released from the 1986 Census of Population and Housing, and contains about 70% more data.

The Expanded Community Profile provides 44 tables and is available for statistical local areas (SLAs) and all other census geographic areas, except for CDs, CD derived suburbs, postcodes and rural localities. It comprises more detailed versions of some of the basic profile tables, plus some new tables. This replaces the "21 page" format small area data from the 1986 Census of Population and Housing.

The Working Population Profile contains 17 tables of labour force and related data on the characteristics of people who work in SLAs within the journey to work study area -- usually capital cities.

The Time Series Community Profile contains approximately 22 tables from the Basic and Expanded Profiles comparing data from the 1981, 1986 and 1991 Census of Population and Housing where the classifications are comparable. It is available for SLAs and aggregates of SLAs.

The Usual Residents Community Profile contains approximately 25 tables based on the usual residents of SLAs.

The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People Community Profile contains 29 tables based on the Basic Community Profile. It is available for ATSI regions and communities, SLAs containing 80 or more Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, sections of State, statistical divisions and States/Territories.

NOTE: Available on a variety of media.

2723.0 1991 Census — Community Profiles Templates*Price on application*

Templates simplify the process of displaying and printing data as formatted tables. A template is available for each Community Profile. These templates are EXCEL spreadsheet files containing table titles, row and column labels, and formulae for producing totals and proportions. Templates are designed for use with unformatted data as provided on magnetic tape.

2724.0 1991 Census — Community Profiles Consultancies, Australia*Price on application*

Community Profile Consultancies can be produced for an aggregate of standard geographic areas for which the particular profile is available. For example, the Expanded Community Profile could be produced for an aggregate of six statistical local areas as a consultancy

2725.0 1991 Census — Socio-Economic Indexes for Areas, Australia*$2,200.00; floppy disk*

Floppy disks containing socio-economic indexes derived from the 1991 Census for postcodes, local government areas, statistical local areas and collection districts. The indexes rank the geographic areas by summarising a wide range of socio-economic variables. Each index summarises specific aspects of socio-economic attributes, using variables such as high or low income, level of education attained or occupation held. Two options of the product are available. The 'stand alone' option contains the indexes and a fully documented software package which facilitates the manipulation of the indexes. For CDATA91 MapInfo users, another option is available which contains the same variable but the data are fully compatible with CDATA91, enabling users to access and manipulate the indexes using the powerful functionality of CDATA. Both options include an Information Paper on the indexes (2912.0) and a user manual.

2726.0 Population Censuses 1981 & 1986 (Add on module to CDATA91 with Supermap)Price on application; CD-ROM

$2,500 for CDATA91 clients, $500 for CDATA91 clients who also purchased CDATA86.

CD level information and boundary data from the 1986 Census and Time Series data at SLA level from the 1981 and 1986 Censuses on 1986 boundaries. This product is the same as CDATA86, but has an interface with CDATA91 software, providing additional functionality and formatted tables.

NOTE: See also 2721.0 and 3226.0.

New Issue 3313.0 Trends in Mortality by Causes of Death in Australia, the States and Territories during 1971-92 and in Statistical Divisions and Sub-divisions during 1991-92

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1971 to 1992; 182 pp; $20.00; ISBN: 0 642 20675 9

Provides a compilation and analysis of the mortality experiences of the population by age, sex and selected causes of death for Australia, the States and Territories during 1971-92, and for the Statistical Divisions and Subdivisions during 1991-92. The study utilises death statistics from vital registrations, which are grouped into eleven leading causes of death currently prevalent in Australia. Mortality rates are calculated by sex, age, and causes of death, which are summarised by several other measures of mortality. The study is unique in three respects: (i) it provides time series mortality rates between 1971 and 1992 for Australia, the States and Territories; (ii) the spatial variation in mortality is examined for Australia entirely; and (iii) the comparison of regional mortality with Australia or State mortality is based on the standardised measures and using the statistical test of significance.

NOTE: This study is a joint venture between the Australian National University, Canberra and the Australian Bureau of Statistics.

New Issue 4104.0 PROTAB — A Special Table Production Service

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1994; floppy disk; $1,000.00

PROTAB is an alternative means of access to social survey data for clients who do not have access to a confidentialised unit record file, or for whom a unit record file does not have sufficient detail.

PROTAB is PC-based software, supplied on floppy disk. It operates on IBM-compatible PCs with DOS 3.3 or better and has on-line help facilities.

PROTAB allows you to browse the full listing of data from ABS social surveys, select individual items of interest, and produce unambiguous specifications for the production of customised reports.

The client then faxes or posts these specifications to the ABS from which the report is generated. Reports can be on paper or in electronic form to suit client's spreadsheet or publication packages.

In most cases the report should be available within 48 hours.

PROTAB assists users by:

- displaying all data items and their classifications
- displaying a cost estimate
- checking client specifications
- checking for allowable data item combinations
- user-specification of new data items
- keyword searching for required data items

NOTE: For further information on PROTAB please telephone (06) 252 6569.

Discont'd 8130.0 Information Paper: Australian Bureau of Statistics Business Register — Recent Developments*Irregular; first and final issue: 1991; 6 pp; free; ISBN: 0 642 16103 8*

The majority of major economic censuses and surveys conducted by the ABS use the ABS Business Register, which carries information on the structure of each business, address and contact information, industry classification and historical employment data. This paper provides an overview of the Register, the major elements of a major upgrade program and the impact of recent developments. In brief, the developments resulted in improvements in the quality of statistical series whose population frames are drawn from the Register, reductions in the reporting load on businesses but also resulted in a short term decrease in the reliability of some series. The size and significance of, and the series affected by, these changes are also discussed.

8131.0 Business Register — Business Count Tabulation Service*Price on application*

The Business Register ISAT facility enables counts of businesses, as recorded on the ABS's Business Register, to be output in the form of tables, or floppy disk files, tailored to a client's specific needs. Business counts are classified by employment size, industry (Australian Standard Industry Classification or Australian and New Zealand Standard Industrial Classification), and geographic area (Australian Standard Geographical Classification).

8140.0 Business Operations and Industry Performance, Australia*Annual; first issue: 1990-91; latest issue: 1993-94, expected to be released in 1995; 70 pp; $35.00; ISSN: 1036-272X*

Economic statistics, including aggregates and ratios, based on profit and loss and balance sheet accounts of businesses in most industries of the Australian economy. Aggregates include details of income and expenditure, profit, assets and liabilities. Measures of productivity, profitability, performance and indebtedness will be included among the ratios presented. The data are classified by broad industry.

NOTE: Data for finer industry classifications (ANZSIC Subdivision) are available. For further information, please telephone (06) 252 5454.

It can also assign the larger regional codes of Statistical Subdivision, Statistical Division and State/Territory as defined in the Australian Standard Geographical Classification (ASGC) (1216.0). A Street Sub-Index and computer assisted coding software is also available.

NOTE: For more information and details on pricing please contact Area Classification on (06) 252 5620. See also 1252.0.

1253.8 Postcode to Statistical Local Area Concordance, Australian Capital Territory

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1991; floppy disk; $65.00

Enables the conversion of all Australian Capital Territory postcodes to Statistical Local Areas (SLAs), as defined in the Australian Standard Geographical Classification (ASGC) (1216.0). The conversion is expressed as a percentage of each postcode's population as recorded in the SLA(s) that occur within the postcode's area. The data includes postcodes which cross the New South Wales border. The concordance is effective at the time of the 1991 Census of Population and Housing. The reverse concordance, i.e. SLA to Postcode 1991, and other geographic concordances, are also available.

NOTE: For more information please contact Area Classification on (06) 252 5620. See also 1253.0.

SUBJECT INDEX

This index is designed to assist in determining which ABS publications and products are relevant to various subjects of specific user interest.

Subject headings are followed by the catalogue number of relevant products.

Main reference sources for individual products are flagged with an asterisk.

Page numbers are shown in parentheses (e.g. 6204.0(190)).

Note that Information Papers, Occasional Papers and Features Articles are separately identified in this index. In the case of entries for Feature Articles, users should refer to the listing on pages 309 to 314 to identify the specific issue of the source publication.

Most National publications contain separate statistics for States and Territories as components of Australian totals. In addition, more detailed State specific data are released in a number of publications. These have a fifth digit representing the State or Territory covered by the data. The value of the fifth digit is as follows:

0	Australia
1	New South Wales
2	Victoria
3	Queensland
4	South Australia
5	Western Australia
6	Tasmania
7	Northern Territory
8	Australian Capital Territories
9	External Territories

While the most significant references for Australian and State Year Books (1300.0 to 1301.6) and Pocket Year Books (1302.0 to 1302.6) are given in this index, each of these publications contains a more detailed index of its own.

The index is not intended as a comprehensive index of the commodities, industries or geographic areas covered in the statistics.

NOTE: For an overview of the range of subjects on which ABS data are available, users should refer to the Table of Contents and the Introduction to this Catalogue.
